Numb. 8734.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 5, to Saturday April 9, 1748.

Turin, March 30.

THIS Court has receiv'd Accounts by two Expreſſes, of an Attempt made upon the Town of Savona by a Body of French Troops ſent from Genoa, but the Governor made ſuch Diſpoſitions as obliged the Enemy to retire, after ſeveral fruitleſs Endeavours to force the advanced Poſts. Beſides the Body tranſported by Sea in 200 Row Boats, there was another, which came by Land to ſecure the Paſſes and the upper Part of the Mountains. This Court is extremely pleaſed with the Aſſiſtance Vice-Admiral Byng gave in this Affair, who cannonaded the Enemy in their Ports.

Dreſden, April 7. That Part of the Ruſſian Army which have paſſed Miedzyrees have halted to wait for the reſt of that Column to come up with them; the moſt advanced Part of the Ruſſian Army was near Lublin the 1ſt of this Month. Some Officers who have ſeen the Ruſſian Troops in Poland, ſay, they are the fineſt Body of Men that they ever ſaw, all young and well made; that they continue to obſerve the exacteſt Diſcipline and Payment, and give the greateſt Satisfaction to the Poles.

Hellinrouck near Ruremond, April 11, N. S. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland arrived here Yeſterday Noon, when General Ligonier was paſſing the Meuſe with 18 Battalions and 18 Squadrons of his Britannick Majeſty's Electoral Troops; and this Morning Lieutenant General Montigni marched into Camp with four Battalions and eight Squadrons more of the ſaid Troops. Count Chanclos is retired to within two Leagues of this Place, and Maeſtricht is inveſted by Marſhal Saxe's Army, while M. Lowendahl remains encamped upon the Eminences from Verviers to Berg, in order to cover the Upper Meuſe on that Side, that all their Convoys may come down with Safety, and that he may come into the Plain of Maeſtricht in Caſe the Allies ſhould make any Attempt on that Side. The Auſtrian Corps will march To-morrow Morning in order to join the Troops here, and leave Major General Puebla with two Auſtrian Battalions, and two of Pandours, with 500 Auſtrian Cavalry at Mazeyk, which is a pretty ſtrong Poſt. General Baroniai is a little advanced before Mazeyk with two Regiments of Huſſars, with Orders to patroll forward to the Geul, near to the Enemy's Line of Circumvallation. Three other Regiments of Huſſars are kept on the other Side of the Meuſe, to patroll up towards Rechem, where the Enemy's Line of Circumvallation begins, and to watch the Motions of M. d'Etrees, who is detached with a Flying Camp of about 15000 Men, moſtly Cavalry, near Brey, and is continually marching and countermarching. To-morrow five Battalions, the laſt Diviſion of his Britannick Majeſty's Electoral Troops, will come into Camp, and it is expected that Lord Albemarle will arrive the 18th with nine Britiſh and four Imperial Battalions, which marched out of Breda Yeſterday. General Chanclos has left 12 Battalions and ſix Companies of Grenadiers of Imperial Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant General Marechal, and Major General Prince d'Aremberg, with 400 Imperial Horſe and 100 Huſſars under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Count Sollern, for the Defence of Maeſtricht, and had got into that Place, the Day before it was inveſted, the great Convoy of Powder.

Hague, April 12, N. S. The young Prince was chriſtened Yeſterday by the Name of William, with great Solemnity. M. Kalkoen was appointed the Day before Yeſterday their High Mightineſſes Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Court of Dreſden. By Letters from Paris there is Advice, that the French King and the Dauphin purpoſe to be with the Army by the latter End of this Month; and that M. de Sotto Majore, the Spaniſh Plenipotentiary to the Conferences of Aix la Chapelle, has poſtponed his Departure from Paris for a few Days. We hear from Zealand, that Vice Admiral Wiltſchut, who commanded the Dutch Fleet in thoſe Seas, died there a few Days ago.

Hague, April 16, N. S. The Council of War, which was appointed to reviſe the Trial of Lieutenant General La Roque, has made an End of that Affair; but wait for the Prince of Orange's Approbation, before they pronounce his Sentence. The Trial of General Cronſtrom is to come on next; and he will be ordered to repair to the Hague, as ſoon as another Perſon is appointed to command at Bois-le-duc in his Room. Lieutenant General Conſtant is ſaid to be fix'd upon by the Prince of Orange for that Purpoſe. M. Kleſeker, and M. Meynertzhaven are arrived here; the firſt as Reſident from the Town of Hambourg, the other as Reſident from the Margrave of Anſpach.
